

Learning and Teaching Grants, Awards and Fellowships - Academic Policy

/about/policies-and-procedures/learning-and-teaching-grants-awards-and-fellowships-academic-policy

1. Purpose of policy

The University encourages staff to engage with external grants, awards and fellowship programs and services as an important strategy to build sustained staff capability in the scholarship of learning and teaching.

In addition, internal awards, grants and fellowships are available to USC staff for recognition and promotion of excellence in teaching and learning.

This policy establishes the roles and responsibilities of University staff:

- for application and nomination approval, management and dissemination of outcomes for internal and external learning and teaching grants, awards and fellowships
- for financial management and acquittal of internally and externally funded learning and teaching projects and fellowships, and
- for disbursement of internal or external award monies.

2. Policy scope and application

This policy applies to all staff of the University.

Employment under the conditions of a 'Teaching Fellowship', as set out in the USC Enterprise Agreement, is out of scope of this policy.

3. Definitions

Please refer to the University's Glossary of Terms for policies and procedures.

4. Policy Statement

4.1 Principles

(a) The University of the Sunshine Coast will value and support outstanding teaching and encourage staff to undertake scholarly work and develop and disseminate significant innovations related to learning and teaching with the ultimate goal of enhancing student learning and contributing to the higher education sector.

(b) The University of the Sunshine Coast will aim to foster a culture that recognises and rewards excellence and innovation in Learning and Teaching. To this end, the University is committed to increasing staff engagement with internal and external grants, awards and fellowship programs and services as an important strategy to build sustained staff capability in the scholarship of learning and teaching.

(c) The Director, Centre for Support and Advancement of Learning promotes, supports and monitors internal and external learning and teaching grant applications, award and fellowship nominations and subsequent funded projects or initiatives.

(d) Academic or Professional staff who manage funded projects or initiatives will act as champions and disseminate project outcomes and promote good practice and innovations in learning and teaching to enhance student learning and the student experience at USC and in the sector more widely.

(e) Ownership of any intellectual property produced as an outcome of any grants, awards or fellowships should be clarified in the conditions and/or contracts prior to commencement, and must comply with USC Intellectual Property – Governing Policy. This is of particular importance for projects jointly undertaken with other institutions.

(f) In entering into a contractual arrangement with a third party, the University will take all reasonable steps to minimise the restrictions or burdens imposed by such arrangements or conditions on the freedom of speech or academic freedom of any member of its staff or students carrying on research or study under such arrangements or subject to such conditions.

4.2 Internal conditions

(a) The Dean (Academic), on advice from the Pro-Vice Chancellor (Students), Heads of School and the Director C-SALT, will determine grant priorities in line with the University's strategic objectives.
