6. How am I going to be assessed?

6.1. Grading Scale

Standard Grading (GRD)

High Distinction (HD), Distinction (DN), Credit (CR), Pass (PS), Fail (FL).

6.2. Details of early feedback on progress

Interactive quizzes (using Kahoot or similar app) is built into class activities from week 2 to assist you with learning and retaining key theoretical concepts learnt throughout the course.

6.3. Assessment tasks

DELIVERY MODE	TASK NO.	ASSESSMENT PRODUCT	INDIVIDUAL OR GROUP	WEIGHTING %	WHAT IS THE DURATION / LENGTH?	WHEN SHOULD I SUBMIT?	WHERE SHOULD I SUBMIT IT?
All	1	Oral	Individual or Group	25%	5-7 minutes	Week 6	Online Assignment Submission
All	2	Essay	Individual	35%	2000 words	Week 12	Online Assignment Submission with plagiarism check
All	3	Examination - Centrally Scheduled	Individual	40%	2 hours	Exam Period	Exam Venue

All - Assessment Task 1: Multimedia-based recorded presentation

GOAL:	The goal of this assessment is to produce a multimedia-based recorded presentation that demonstrates your early learnings of classical criminology and its relevance to a specific crime problem.
PRODUCT:	Oral
FORMAT:	This task can be completed individually or in pairs. You are required to produce a pre-recorded 5-7 minute presentation. Three crimes will be provided to you at the beginning of semester. You are required to research one of these crimes and use the presentation to demonstrate how the nominated classical theory explains the crime. You will also be expected to critique the theory in terms of its ability to fully explain the crime. More information will be provided in tutorials and on the Blackboard site to help you prepare for your presentation.
CRITERIA:	<table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>No.</th> <th></th> <th>Learning Outcome assessed</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>1</td> <td>Identification and accurate description of theoretical concepts</td> <td>1</td> </tr> <tr> <td>2</td> <td>Application of theoretical concepts to explain a specific crime</td> <td>2</td> </tr> <tr> <td>3</td> <td>Accurate critique of theory for explaining a specific crime and its implications</td> <td>3</td> </tr> <tr> <td>4</td> <td>Quality and creativity of presentation to convey key messages</td> <td>2</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	No.		Learning Outcome assessed	1	Identification and accurate description of theoretical concepts	1	2	Application of theoretical concepts to explain a specific crime	2	3	Accurate critique of theory for explaining a specific crime and its implications	3	4	Quality and creativity of presentation to convey key messages	2

All - Assessment Task 2: Essay

GOAL:	The purpose of this assessment task is for you to demonstrate your knowledge of a sample of crime theories taught throughout the course. The goal is to demonstrate your ability to integrate and evaluate these theories to explain a crime and identify implications for responding to the crime.
PRODUCT:	Essay
FORMAT:	You are to produce a 2000-word academic essay that integrates three theories covered in the course to explain a specific crime and identify how this translates to practice (i.e., preventing or responding to the crime problem).

CRITERIA:	No.	Learning Outcome assessed
	1	Accurate description of relevant concepts for each chosen theory	1 2
	2	Integration of chosen theories to explain a crime specific crime and implications for criminal justice	4
	3	Accurate critique of chosen theories in relation to one another and for explaining the specific crime	3
	4	Appropriate use synthesis of literature to support key arguments	4
	5	Appropriate and effective structuring of arguments, clarity of expression and correct use of grammar, punctuation and spelling	2

All - Assessment Task 3: Examination

GOAL:	This end-of-semester exam allows you to demonstrate your knowledge and understanding of course materials covered throughout the semester.
PRODUCT:	Examination - Centrally Scheduled
FORMAT:	This task will take the form of a supervised test in individual mode. You will be required to respond to a combination of multiple choice and short answer questions, drawn from course material covered in weeks 1 - 13. You will have 2 hours available to complete the task. Formative activities are completed in tutorials to prepare you for this exam.
CRITERIA:	No.		Learning Outcome assessed
	1	Accurate recall of course material indicated by correct answers on multiple choice questions	1 2 3 4
	2	Systematic presentation of relevant knowledge addressing the nature and scope of the short-answer questions posed	1 2 3 4

7. Directed study hours

A 12-unit course will have total of 150 learning hours which will include directed study hours (including online if required), self-directed learning and completion of assessable tasks. Directed study hours may vary by location. Student workload is calculated at 12.5 learning hours per one unit.

8. What resources do I need to undertake this course?

Please note: Course information, including specific information of recommended readings, learning activities, resources, weekly readings, etc. are available on the course Blackboard site– Please log in as soon as possible.

8.1. Prescribed text(s) or course reader

9. How are risks managed in this course?

Health and safety risks for this course have been assessed as low. It is your responsibility to review course material, search online, discuss with lecturers and peers and understand the health and safety risks associated with your specific course of study and to familiarise yourself with the University's general health and safety principles by reviewing the online induction training for students, and following the instructions of the University staff.

10. What administrative information is relevant to this course?

10.1. Assessment: Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is the ethical standard of university participation. It ensures that students graduate as a result of proving they are competent in their discipline. This is integral in maintaining the value of academic qualifications. Each industry has expectations and standards of the skills and knowledge within that discipline and these are reflected in assessment.

Academic integrity means that you do not engage in any activity that is considered to be academic fraud; including plagiarism, collusion or outsourcing any part of any assessment item to any other person. You are expected to be honest and ethical by completing all work yourself and indicating in your work which ideas and information were developed by you and which were taken from others. You cannot provide your assessment work to others. You are also expected to provide evidence of wide and critical reading, usually by using appropriate academic references.

In order to minimise incidents of academic fraud, this course may require that some of its assessment tasks, when submitted to Blackboard, are electronically checked through SafeAssign. This software allows for text comparisons to be made between your submitted assessment item and all other work that SafeAssign has access to.

10.2. Assessment: Additional Requirements

Your eligibility for supplementary assessment in a course is dependent of the following conditions applying:

The final mark is in the percentage range 47% to 49.4%

The course is graded using the Standard Grading scale

You have not failed an assessment task in the course due to academic misconduct.

10.3. Assessment: Submission penalties

Late submission of assessment tasks may be penalised at the following maximum rate:

- 5% (of the assessment task's identified value) per day for the first two days from the date identified as the due date for the assessment task.

- 10% (of the assessment task's identified value) for the third day - 20% (of the assessment task's identified value) for the fourth day and subsequent days up to and including seven days from the date identified as the due date for the assessment task.

- A result of zero is awarded for an assessment task submitted after seven days from the date identified as the due date for the assessment task. Weekdays and weekends are included in the calculation of days late. To request an extension you must contact your course coordinator to negotiate an outcome.

10.4. Study help

For help with course-specific advice, for example what information to include in your assessment, you should first contact your tutor, then your course coordinator, if needed.

If you require additional assistance, the Learning Advisers are trained professionals who are ready to help you develop a wide range of academic skills. Visit the Learning Advisers web page for more information, or contact Student Central for further assistance: +61 7 5430 2890 or studentcentral@usc.edu.au.

10.5. Wellbeing Services

Student Wellbeing provide free and confidential counselling on a wide range of personal, academic, social and psychological matters, to foster positive mental health and wellbeing for your academic success.

To book a confidential appointment go to Student Hub, email studentwellbeing@usc.edu.au or call 07 5430 1226.

10.6. AccessAbility Services

Ability Advisers ensure equal access to all aspects of university life. If your studies are affected by a disability, learning disorder mental health issue, injury or illness, or you are a primary carer for someone with a disability or who is considered frail and aged, AccessAbility Services can provide access to appropriate reasonable adjustments and practical advice about the support and facilities available to you throughout the University.

To book a confidential appointment go to Student Hub, email AccessAbility@usc.edu.au or call 07 5430 2890.
