

UNIVERSITY OF THE SUNSHINE COAST

UNIVERSITY HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

The University of the Sunshine Coast is committed to the prevention of illness or injury due to work carried out by any student, member of staff or any other person on campus or any workplace over which the University has jurisdiction on campus. All students, staff, contractors, suppliers and visitors are therefore bound by this commitment. Everyone on campus of the University of the Sunshine Coast has an obligation to ensure that all work under their care or control is carried out in a safe and efficient manner.

The University requires workplace health and safety to be an integral part of every University of the Sunshine Coast operation. The safety of students, staff, the public, contractors and all other employees is the responsibility of everyone on campus and is to be demonstrated at all times.

The University neither expects nor requires its students, employees, suppliers or contractors to attempt anything that would be likely to cause them harm.
