The Bachelor of Business (Honours) structure is usually as follows:

- a 48-unit coursework component (consisting of four 12-unit courses), and
- a 48-unit thesis component

Coursework component

Required courses (4) 48 units:

BUS512 Introduction to Research Concepts and Design

BUS513 The Literature Review

BUS514 Qualitative Research Methods

BUS515 Applied Quantitative Research Methods

Thesis component 48 units

A research project is conducted over the full year of enrolment, resulting in a thesis. The nature and topic of the thesis is determined by the student's interests, the interests of potential supervisors and the availability of appropriate supervision.

Students are required to complete a literature review and detailed methodology by the end of the first semester for full-time students, and the end of the second semester for part-time students.
